

Dr. Greenberger

Dr. Greenberger is the director of Pediatric Dermatology clinic at The Edmond and Lily Safra Children's Hospital, Sheba Medical Center, Israel.

She received her medical degree from the Hebrew University in Jerusalem and her PhD from Tel-Aviv University, Israel. After completing her residency in Dermatology at Sheba Medical Center in Israel she was a post-doctoral fellow at the lab of Dr. Joyce Bischoff at the Children's Hospital Boston and Harvard Medical School. Her lab in Sheba medical center focuses on pathological vasculogenesis and angiogenesis.

Her clinical interests are pediatric dermatology, including atopic dermatitis, vascular anomalies and genodermatoses.