Beit Issie Shapiro’s

4th INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES: POLICY, PRACTICE AND RESEARCH

“Partnerships for Progress”

Second Announcement

David Intercontinental Hotel, Tel Aviv, Israel
July 4 – 6, 2006

Presented under the auspices of the Trump International Institute of Continuing Education in Developmental Disabilities
Dear Colleague

It is with great excitement that we greet you. We are nearing the date for our conference and it promises to be a most illuminating event both professionally and socially.

It has taken two years to plan this conference: to assess the current issues, to identify and invite the most experienced experts to share their knowledge with us, and to gather together people who care about those with special needs.

We invite you to join us for this important happening – both as a teacher and as a learner. Our aim is to create a place where we can all develop new insights... fresh perspectives... and respond to innovative developments. Let us continue to be passionate about improving the opportunities for children with special needs everywhere.

Beit Issie Shapiro’s 4th International Conference on Developmental Disabilities will be presented as the culmination of our 25th Anniversary of service. It marks 25 years of achievements and sets the scene for a further 25 years of challenges.

We have to do more to include people with special needs in our neighborhoods, businesses and social groups. We have to ensure that they receive the services that are rightfully theirs, and make sure that we listen to what they are saying. As former President William Jefferson Clinton said when he addressed our Silver Ball a while ago, we have to be sure that people with disabilities are seen – and that we see them. We have to look at our own prejudices – paternalistic or discriminatory and put them away. Instead we have to ask the people we serve what they want and engage their energy and involvement in solving their communal problems.

Our Beit Issie Shapiro’s 4th International Conference on Developmental Disabilities will have present many opportunities for dialogue between professionals and people with disabilities and their parents. We will address the ubiquitous issue of abuse and how those who are vulnerable must be protected. We will learn together in a spirit of partnership – which is the theme and emphasis of the conference.

The time has come to sign up. We will provide the setting... the program... the opportunity. But it will fall to you and your colleagues and co-workers from many different lands, to provide the color and grasp the challenge of changing the facts on the ground.

We look forward to meeting you –

Sincerely,

Naomi Stuchiner

Dear Colleague

Beit Issie Shapiro is happy to continue its tradition of hosting its 4th International Conference on Developmental Disabilities and Special Needs, in Israel.

Our last conference (2002) focused on Challenges and Opportunities for and concerning people with special needs, and we will continue along the same lines, this time highlighting the issue of: ‘Policy, Practice and Research: Partnerships for Progress’

We are building what promises to be a very interesting and challenging program with professionals and speakers in our field.

This conference is presented under the banner of our 25th Anniversary celebrations, which symbolizes many years of partnerships in activities to improve the quality of life of people with special needs. Your involvement is important to us. The Conference website will keep you involved and updated and we invite you to express your thoughts and ideas and to interact with us in our Conference Forum.

We look forward to sharing an interesting and stimulating learning experience, together.

Yours sincerely,

Dr. Benjamin Hozmi           Prof. Arie Rimmernan           Dr. Herbert J. Cohen
